6 Brushes total:
- 5 synthetic brushes
- 1 Chip Brush for gesso

Class Objectives:
1) To learn to paint using a variety of different palettes.
2) To learn to control and master acrylic paints through both class and homework projects
3) To learn to analyze a master painter’s colors and emulate a painting in a professional manner
4) To learn how to use dull/subtle colors vs. rich/stu rated colors

Classroom Rules:
Please refrain from using your cell phones during class. Especially, when the model is posing. I often give talks while you are working and you may benefit from picking up on tips/advice and suggestions that I offer during these talks. Keep talking to a minimum. Unnecessary talking can disrupt your concentration and that of others. Let’s keep the classroom clean and practice a “clean-as-you-go” way of working. This is especially true with paint brushes that can get ruined if they are left with paint on them for any given length of time. 5-10 minutes before the end of the class, you are expected to spend time cleaning up your area and materials. Return tables/easels/drawing horses to designated areas at the end of class.

Course Requirements: Students are to have 3-4 fully completed paintings by the end of the semester, along with a series of practice/exercise paintings.

Homework: Homework will be assigned every week. All work is to be completed by the following Sunday. Students are required to work minimum of 3 or + hours a week on homework.

Grading: As you already know, there is no grading at Ryman, but do complete all classwork and all homework as if you were being graded!

Attendance and Punctuality: Attendance is extremely important for your success in this course. We will be working from professional models, particular still lifes and from photo references in class, so it is very important that you are here, on time and are productive throughout the time during the class. If you arrive late, (late= 9:01 am or later) please make sure you are marked present by either the T.A. or myself. It’s very important to be here on time (menaing get here @8:45am, preferably). If you get here late, the more likely it is that you will lose out on specific instructions/demonstrations given at the beginning causing a delay of the entire class, which is not good for anyone. Be here on time! If you are absent, read the syllabus for the missing weeks’ homework assignment details and instructions and have it completed by next class.
Participation: Participation is very important in this class. Participation includes: being present, listening, paying attention, following instructions, being active in group critiques, bringing all necessary materials to class every day, being open to advice/suggestion/recommendations from the teacher and being able to work well with others in class. In addition, participation is important through your positive attitude and being open minded to new approaches to painting/thinking that you may have never experienced before. Trying on newly introduced approaches/techniques/ways of working and different ideas/philosophies are meant to help you grow as an artist. Be open to positive constructive criticism. Individual and class critiques are meant to help you become a more informed and well-rounded artist. Please be open about this.

Class Schedule

Class 1 – (2/20) “achromatic geometric still life”

Achromatic palette (no color) day 1: (work from photograph of white on white still life), Orientation, Introduction of myself to class, class introduces themselves to me, demo: how to: gesso paper, do an imprimatura (a wash), mixing and matching tones, execute a simple grayscale. Begin to work on still life in class and finish at home.

PAINTS: lamp black and titanium white
SUBSTRATE: CANVAS board 11" x 14"

STEPS: do an imprimatura, dry it, do a GOOD line drawing of objects and shadows with paint brush. start “blocking in” painting by beginning to work in a “background to foreground, dark to light, big to small, thin too thick” manner, using the biggest brush for the longest time, slowly working with smaller and smaller brushes.

GOALS: learn how to: 1) mix and match shades of gray thoroughly 2) discipline your palette 3) not under or overuse water when mixing 4) learn to paint opaquely vs. transparently (watercolors): wet into dry. Painting should be “sculpturally solid: Representational”. Meaning, it should look like your looking through a “window into reality”: an illusionary scene of solid still life objects. No texture/brushwork should be seen. Smooth finish. Should look “realistic”.

Homework: continue working on and finish “achromatic geometric still life” on CANVAS board 11" x 14" at home and bring COMPLETED to next class. Piece must have utilized the FULL GRAYSCALE (i.e., more than just 5 shades of gray, which means all geometric forms should appear “resentational”), “sculpturally solid”, smooth/even and with good illusion of forms appearing to exist in the “window into space”. In addition, for next week, you must have 1 sheet of Stonehenge paper (from the pad given to you today) covered with 1 coat of gesso and make sure it’s dry BEFORE CLASS. The paper should be gessoed minimum 24 hours in advance! You are required to do this AT HOME throughout the semester. Not at school! I would recommend that you gesso several sheets at a time. Also, please bring 2 of your strongest/favorite Ryman Arts drawings for next week and be prepared to explain to me why they are your strongest/favorite pieces.

Class 2 - (2/27) “achromatic figure day”

Achromatic palette day 2: (work from 1 of the 2 nude casts)

PAINTS: lamp black and titanium white
SUBSTRATE: pre-gessoed paper

STEPS: Do imprimatura (wash) with diluted (watered-down) black paint on gessoed paper with largest brush. While paper is drying, do pre-mixed batches of grays: minimum 7-shades of gray and B+W. Be “on the look out for hard (found/sharp) and soft edges (lost/blended)”: cast and form shadows. All students are to do 1 torso, portrait.

We will do short individual crits today regarding HW#1 and your 2 strongest/favorite Ryman Arts pieces.

GOALS: Learn how to: 1) create “SCULPTURALLY SOLID FORM”, 2) be “on the look out for hard (found/sharp) and soft edges (lost/blended)”: cast and form shadows and mimic them in your paintings.

Homework: “Scales and Spheres”: on 2 sheets of pre-gessoed papers, do gradation scales and 2 exercise sphere paintings (1 black/white and 1 burnt sienna and blue and white) Details to be discussed before end of class.
Class 3 - (3/6) “limited palette figure day”

“warm and cool: orange vs. blue:”
PAINTS: burnt sienna, ultramarine blue and white
SUBSTRATE: pre-gessoed paper
GOALS: students will learn how to use warm, cool and neutral colors.

Homework: “opposite nude figure”. students are expected to take a photo of the opposite torso from the class set-up and do a painting at home on 1 full sheet of pre-gessoed paper vertically (portrait)

Class 4 - (3/13) “limited palette figure day 2 “

“warm and cool: orange vs. blue:”
PAINTS: burnt sienna, ultramarine blue and white
SUBSTRATE: pre-gessoed paper
GOALS: students will learn how to use warm, cool and neutral colors.

Homework: “opposite nude figure”, students are expected to take a photo of the opposite torso from the class set-up and do a painting at home on 1 full sheet of pre-gessoed paper vertically (portrait)

Class 5 - (3/20) MODEL “Old Masters Palette Day 1” “warm and cool: orange vs. blue:”

PAINTS: Ultramarine Blue, Burnt Sienna, Venetian Red, Yellow Ochre and white.
SUBSTRATE: pre-gessoed paper
GOALS: to learn to work with Old Renaissance Masters palette.

Homework: “Master Copy”, on pre-gessoed paper, you are to do a “master copy block in”. Pre-selected copies of paintings will be given to you for emulation. Use today’s palette: Ultramarine Blue, Burnt Sienna, Venetian Red, Yellow Ochre and White. Make sure the image is not altered in any way shape or form (no stretching or cutting or omitting of any part of the painting). Your Master Copy has to be as close to the original as you can make it. It has to have the main “blocks” of the original well described and articulated: meaning, the color, value and temperature should match the original.

Class 6 - (3/27) MODEL “Old Masters Palette Day 2 ” “warm and cool: blue vs. orange:”

PAINTS: same palette as last class
SUBSTRATE: pre-gessoed paper
GOALS: learn to 1) fine tune their painting skills to an intermediate level using same palette

Homework: “Portrait with Narrative Background”, Self-portrait (or portrait of someone else: relative or friend) with a NARRATIVE background/environment done from mirror (preferably: no photographs), using the Master’s Palette: Ultramarine Blue, Burnt Sienna, Venetian Red, Yellow Ochre and white. You are to follow the same process(steps) as you did for the master copy but take it to full completion.

TO BE DONE ON CANVAS board 16" X 20" PROVIDED TO YOU BEFORE YOU LEAVE TODAY. DUE IN 2 WEEKS!!

Steps: 1) do a neutral middle-toned imprimatura 2) make sure it’s dry 3) do a line drawing with paintbrush and neutral wash(thinned out paint) OR you may use a pencil and 4) work in a “background to foreground, dark to light, big to small, thin too thick” manner, using the biggest brush for the longest time, slowly working with smaller and smaller brushes. Also, please: TONE 2 sheets of pre-gessoed before the start of next class!!
Class 7 - (4/3) MODEL: “Old Masters Palette Day 3: figure/environment; 2 paintings”

PAINTS: same palette as last class
SUBSTRATE: 2 sheets of gessoed Stonehenge paper

GOALS: learn to 1) achieve an advanced level using the same palette 2) include all of model and background 3) be able to simplify the figure in a blocky fashion and 4) do 2 paintings within 3 hours

Homework: Final Project (Stage 1): “8 sketches in sketchbook”
Come up with 4 completely different concepts (variations) for the theme of “Friendship”. (PLEASE NOTE: “Friendship” may be defined or interpreted in so many different ways. (Hint, Hint!))
Painting must have minimum 3 figures in a scene, all 3 of them reacting differently to the same event/scenario/occasion. All of the following aspects of story-telling must be utilized in each of the sketches 1) background/environment 2) lighting 3) props 4) clothing/outfit 5) point of view/perspective 6) and the overall composition: “The Staging”. Keeping in line with the “working from observation”/”realism” philosophy, you must work from photo reference that you either take or found and your imagery cannot be altered or stylized. We’re aiming for a strict realism. They can be fictitious characters but you have to use real people taking on fictitious roles (e.g., posing your friends as circus performers, even though they really aren’t). Thus, if you want to do a piece about skateboard kids in Paris, but you’ve never been there, it’s o.k. You can take pictures of your friends/relatives/self (even though they may not be skateboarders) in different poses, find lots of good photo reference on the internet about streets in Paris, and then “assemble/construct” an image from all the different references put together.
NOTE: It would be best that you find photos of backgrounds/buildings/landscape with a particular lighting 1°, that way you can shoot photo reference of friends/relatives/self BASED on the lighting, angle, perspective that your found imagery commands. This will minimize the collaged look of your painting. For next week, give me MINIMUM 8 different sketches of 4 DIFFERENT “friendship” themes, 2 each that you are considering/pondering to address. To be done in graphite pencil only, with shading and in your sketchbook. A lot of time will probably be spent in coming up with the different variations on the theme and researching it, so don’t procrastinate. Each sketch should be 4” x 5”.
Use ruler to create your rectangular frames in your sketchbook, Format could be portrait or landscape, it’s up to you.
NOTE: Be prepared to spend minimum 8-12 hours on actually painting the final project the last 3 weeks of the class. This is only a brainstorming/preliminary stage. Don’t procrastinate start immediately.

Class 8 - (4/10) Interior Studio Painting: primaries vs. secondaries
SUBSTRATE: on CANVAS board 16” x 20”
PAINTS: white, primaries vs. secondaries, and “black”: burnt sienna and ultramarine blue.
GOALS: learn to 1) to mix their secondary colors 2) to create harmonious color arrangements using a very limited palette 3) learn to paint an environment/scene with multiple people in it directly from life.

Homework: Final Project Stage (stage 2): “2 Color Studies”. Paint two color sketches of two different versions of a potential final painting on 2 sheets of gessoed Stonehenge paper. Make sure your 2 color studies are 8” x 10” each, done on 2 sheets of gessoed Stonehenge paper

NO CLASS 4/17/22

Class 9 - (4/24) MODEL: “Day 1 of a 2-day in-class painting”
PAINTS: white, primaries vs. secondaries, and “black”: burnt sienna and ultramarine blue.
SUBSTRATE: 18” X 24” CANVAS board
GOALS: learn to 1) develop a good sense of time management and 2) strategize the use of the canvas

Homework: Final Project (Stage 3): “Work in Progress”. After having discussed with you today in class about which one of the 2 color sketches is working best, proceed to start the painting on STRETCHED CANVAS 16” x 20” PROVIDED TO YOU BEFORE YOU LEAVE TODAY. Your Final Painting should be at 33% completed state by next class meeting.
Class 10 - (5/1) MODEL: “Day 2 of a 2-day in-class painting”

We will START 1-on-1 Student Reviews today 15-20 minute talks per student

Model will return for 2nd day of painting at 9 AM SHARP. Be ready to paint! We’ll do a group critique at the end of class before you start to clean up.

PAINTS: white, primaries vs. secondaries, and “black”: burnt sienna and ultramarine blue.
SUBSTRATE: on 18" X 24" CANVAS board FROM PREVIOUS WEEK!
GOALS: learn to 1) develop a good sense of time management and 2) strategize the use of the canvas

Teacher will:

1) Critique: semester work/progress and give feedback on work in progress of final.
2) begin to consult with student which piece might be submitted into student show.

Homework: Final Project (Stage 4): Final Completed! Plan on spending 8 hours or more on finishing remaining Final Project at home. This is the last time you will have time to finish this before the end of the semester. Please make sure it’s completed, by the beginning of the next class. DON’T procrastinate! Remember to manage your time and plan ahead! Bring any and all artwork done in this class whether finished or unfinished to class on the final day.

Class 11 - (5/8) Final Class

1) We will CONTINUE 1-on-1 Student Reviews today for remaining students.
2) Final Painting is DUE TODAY. Some time will be allowed to finish any small details on your final and/or any other assignment, but you should not depend on this time. I will only probably allow for about the first 2 hours of class to work. That’s not a lot of time to work in class.
3) The remaining hour and a half will be for a group crit.
4) All remaining artwork is to be taken home today.

The End! You’re done! Congratulations!
